

C

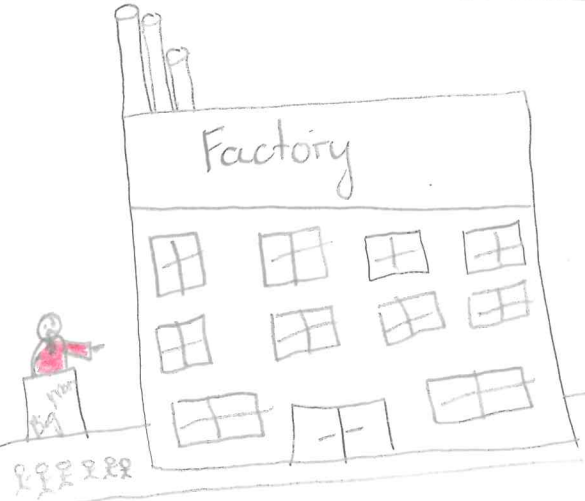

Gray

S

I

To me Gray brings out the lies, that the men told Mr. Hine and Mr. Brown. Maybe the way the children felt on the inside. Sad, gloomy, and un-knowing of the education they could have.

A hammer represents the hard work the children must do. Only to get a couple of pennies a day.

This image shows how children are forced to work. If they want to or not.

